WINE FOR CHRISTMAS

Christmas is around the corner!

The Holiday season is upon us again. Warm cozy nights, time with family and friends, Christmas trees and twinkling lights...

In Portugal, Christmas is celebrated on the evening of the 24th of December with a traditional Christmas dinner and the exchange of gifts at midnight of the 25th.

The traditional Christmas meal in Portugal, called 'Consoada', is celebrated with cod fish - Bacalhau - with boiled potatoes and vegetables.

In some regions of the country octopus, roasted turkey or lamb can also be served.

With its intense flavours, boiled cod fish pairs perfectly with a structured white wine, such as Maria Bonita Nostalgia Alvarinho Vinho Verde D.O.C. or an elegant red wine like Andreza Altitude D.O.C. Douro.

Octopus goes very well with Andreza Reserva White D.O.C. Douro and Pegos Claros Reserva D.O.C. Palmela.

The rich flavours of turkey and lamb pair wonderfully with elegant and complex red wines. Try it with Insurgente Premium D.O.C. Dão and 1836 Grande Reserva Red D.O.C. Do Tejo.

At the end of the meal, you will find at the Christmas' table "Bolo Rei", "Filhós", "Sonhos" "Rabanadas", "Aletria" and "Arroz Doce", that go very well with Azul Portugal Porto Tawny 10 Years Old.

Celebrate Christmas with family, good food and great wine!

Merry Christmas | Feliz Natal!
