PORTUGUESE RED TROPHY

Tylo Alba Red
D.O.C. - Do Tejo 2016

Tylo Alba red 2016, as a Gold Medal winner in tranche 1, with 96 points, has been re-tasted and was considered an IWC 2020 Trophy Winner - "Portuguese Red Trophy": "This is a lovely floral wine with lifted violets, medium weight with deep black fruit and spice. Intense, minty, plum and liquorice. Deep, soft, fine and elegant. For a subtle, oaky finish."

Panel Chair: Brendan Heath | Co-Chair: Charles Melotoff

SILVER

Andreza Reserva Red
D.O.C. - Douro 2017

"Plums and liquorice on the nose with mocha on the palate. Juicy and grippy with a rich portebact oak finish."

Panel Chair: Ewan Murray | Co-Chair: Jamie Goode

Maria Bonita Alvarinho White
Regional - Minho 2018

"Dried herbs and tropical fruits. Layered and complex with a creamy texture. Slightly toasty"

Panel Chair: Simon Woods | Co-Chair: Peter McCombie MW
